

Software Engineer - LAMP

In this role, you will maintain and enhance the existing PHP codebase for an on-demand construction management software application.

Required Experience:

- 5+ years hands-on development experience of as a commercial service (SaaS) product
- Experience in the full SDLC; requirements, design, coding, testing, release management.
- Experience building dynamic web pages and fully-functional forms from the ground up -- you understand how the whole web stack works.
- Deep experience with modern PHP architectures. Object-Oriented PHP & ZEND framework
- Javascript expert. Familiar with common frameworks and libraries (jQuery, Prototype, HiCharts, etc)
- Excellent Actionscript and Flash authoring skills
- Strong experience with the front-end code: HTML5, CSS and AJAX
- Expert PostgreSQL skills and ability to architect database structures
- Experience and comfort with working on Linux systems and basic system administration skills (Apache configuration, basic shell scripting, etc)
- Experience using source control and bug tracking systems and writing technical documentation
- Minimum of a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science or related engineering field
- Working knowledge of construction project management and project controls best practices.

FACS offers a competitive salary and benefits. FACS does not offer relocation, or telecommuting. No phone calls or recruiters! To apply, please send resume (in word format) to HR@facsware.com